Hit and Run Crash on HWY 26

On Tuesday, March 11, 2014 2:04 p.m. Beaverton Police Officers responded to a reported hit and run crash on HWY 26 westbound at NW Cornell Rd involving three vehicles.

When officers arrived they were told that a Hispanic adult male who was driving a white Ford truck had fled the scene up onto NW Cornell Rd. A short time after officers arrived they were notified that the Ford truck was a stolen today in Hillsboro during a burglary.

Officers began to search the area for the subject who fled from the stolen truck. The subject was located with the assistance of a Beaverton Police K-9 officer and his partner. The subject was found hiding in some bushes in the area of NW 153rd and NW Oak hills. He is identified as Jose Durant-Maya and is 30 years old. Durant-Maya was taken into custody and taken to the Hillsboro Police Department and will be lodged in the Washington County Jail.

There were two occupants from one of the vehicles that were transported by ambulance to a local area hospital with non-life threatening injuries.
